Ishte viti 2014 kur ministri i Jashtëm i Emirateve të Bashkuara Arabe ishte për vizitë në Kosovë. Në atë kohë zëvendëskryeministër në Qeverinë e Kosovës, Presidenti Behgjet Pacolli, organizoi darkën e pritjes për ministrin e Jashtëm të EBA-s. Unë dhe disa kolegë të tjerë në Ministrinë e Punëve të Jashtme po merreshim intensivisht me organizimin e kësaj vizite dhe kjo ishte hera e parë që do të takohesha me Presidentin Pacollin. Duke qenë ministri i parë i Jashtëm i një vendi arab në Kosovë që shpalli pavarësinë dhe mik i Kosovës që ka vizituar shumë në sigurimin e njohjeve dhe votave të reja për anëtarësimin ndërkombëtar të Kosovës, ne u munduam shumë që kjo vizitë të jetë e suksesshme. Në atë takim Presidenti Pacolli dhe Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan filluan të bisedojnë për një takim që kishin në EBA në vitet '70 kur vetë Sheikh Abdullah ishte fëmijë dhe presidenti Pacolli po rrëfente takimin me babain e tij dhe themeluesin e Emirateve të Bashkuara Arabe Sheikh Zayed.

Biseda dhe momente të tilla me Presidentin Pacolli do të kisha përjetuar shumë herë gjatë mandatit të tij si Ministër i Punëve të Jashtme të Republikës së Kosovës, periudhë ku kemi pasur shumë takime dhe vizita me qëllim të forcimit të pozitës së Kosovës në arenën ndërkombëtare. Kontaktet e ndryshme dhe rrjeti i gjerë i krijuar ndër vite nga presidenti Pacolli kanë qenë të rëndësishme për politikën e jashtme të Kosovës në vitet e pas shpalljes së pavarësisë, por jo vetëm.

Në shumë vende, kontaktet dhe puna e tij kanë bërë që ato vende ta njohin Kosovën si shtet të pavarur dhe sovran, nga Amerika Qendrore e deri në Afrikë dhe Azi, janë me dhjetëra vende që kanë marrë një vendim të tillë për shkak të lobimit të tij të vazhdueshëm. Gjatë kohës që ai shërbeu si ministër i Punëve të Jashtme, kam punuar ngushtë me Presidentin Pacolli për çështjet e njohjes së Kosovës dhe marrëdhëniet me vende të ndryshme, ku kemi bërë shumë vizita nga Bangladeshi në Barbados, Gambia, Zambia, ShBA dhe shumë vende të tjera, për të rritur numrin e njohjeve të Kosovës, por edhe për të kundërshtuar një fushatë të egër dhe korruptive të diplomacisë serbe që synon tërheqjen e njohjeve të Kosovës.

Ishte kjo fushatë e diplomacisë serbe ku me një ekip të Ministrisë së Punëve të Jashtme të kryesuar nga presidenti Pacolli ndërtaam një fushatë diplomatike që kishte për qëllim të prishte këtë fushatë diplomatike serbe dhe të bashkëpunonim ngushtë me vende të ndryshme për të penguar marrjen e vendimeve të dëmshme për interesat e Kosovës të nxituar nga Beogradi. Dhe ka shumë vende ku, shpesh me diplomaci shumë aktive, shumë vende janë penguar të bien pre e fushatës serbe.

Në Diplomaci përpiqemi të ndërtojmë marrëdhënie personale, të kuptojmë se çfarë i bën njerëzit të dallojnë dhe të kuptojmë qëllimet e njerëzve me të cilët kemi të bëjmë. Kjo është ajo që mundëson shtetet për të përmbushur nevojat e tyre. Ato janë mjetet themelore të diplomacisë eë suksesshme në avancimin e interesave të vendeve të tyre. Përbërësi kryesor i suksesit në diplomaci është ajo që quhet "tradecraft". Veçanërisht e rëndësishme është aftësia për të krijuar dhe mbajtur marrëdhënie të mira personale.

Më siguri te plotë nga ajo përvoj mund të konkludoj që nëse nuk do të ishin marrëdhëniet personale të presidentit Pacolli me krerët e shteteve, numri i shteteve që mund të tërhiqnin njohje do të ishte më i madh, por marrëdhëniet personale, të cilat janë gjithmonë të rëndësishme, ishin ato që na bënë të depërtonim tek Presidentët dhe Kryeministrat e shteteve për të parandaluar për vendimet e nxitura nga Beogradi.

Në vitet e fundit, Twitter ka shërbyer si një formë e gjithanshme e sheshit publik politik për çështjet e brendshme dhe botërore. Përdorimi i Twitter-it, i nxitur kryesisht nga rëndësia e mediave sociale në mjedisin aktual për kryerjen e funksioneve diplomatike, është bërë një pjesë integrale e marrëdhënieve ndërkombëtare bashkëkohore. Në të vërtetë, Twitter ka krijuar formën e vet të diplomacisë duke e inkorporuar veten për të shtuar funksionet tradicionale diplomatike si diskutimi dhe negociimi. Ky përmbledhje tregon se si Twitter ka luajtur një rol të rëndësishëm në fushën e diplomacisë në vitet e fundit. Ai analizon rolin e luajtur nga "Twiplomacy" dhe nënvizon efektet e tij të dobishme dhe të dëmshme në sjelljen e marrëdhënieve ndërkombëtare.

Ishte twitteri i Presidentit Pacolli dhe i Ministrisë së Punëve të Jashtme, duke përfshirë edhe strategjinë më të gjerë të komunikimit të aplikuar, që ndihmoi në formësimin e narrativës kundër agresionit diplomatik serb ndaj Kosovës. Ne ishim në gjendje të sulmonim veprimet diplomatike serbe përmes një qasjeje të përshtatur komunikimi që synonte të tregonte fytyrën e vërtetë të Serbisë. Në këtë kontribut të madh dhe përpjekje udhëheqëse dha diplomati me përvojë z. Sami Kastrati i cili ishte përgjegjës për çështjet publike dhe diplomacinë publike në Ministri. Por ajo që është e rëndësishme të theksohet se kemi pasur mbështetjen dhe angazhimin e plotë të Presidentit Pacolli në të gjitha sugjerimet dhe veprimet se si t'i kundërvihemi diplomacisë serbe.

Sot, që nga koha në Ministrinë e Punëve të Jashtme, kam ndërtuar një miqësi personale me presidentin Pacolli, të cilin e konsideroj se meriton mirënjohje për shumë arritje në politikën e jashtme të Kosovës dhe për udhëheqjen e Ministrisë në një kohë të përmbysjeve brenda dhe jashtë vendit.

Preface

It was 2014 when the Minister of Foreign Affairs of United Arab Emirates has had visited Kosovo. Back then, the Prime Minister in the Government of Kosovo, President Behgjet Pacolli, organized the hosting dinner for the Minister of Foreign Affairs of UAE. I and some other colleagues, within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, were dealing intensively with the organization of this visit and this was the first time that I would personally meet President Pacolli. Being the first foreign minister of an Arabic country visiting Kosovo, which announced her independence, and being a friend of Kosovo thereby visiting a lot of other countries in having them recognize the independence of Kosovo and bringing new votes in international membership of Kosovo, we made our best efforts for this visit to be successful. At that meeting, President Pacolli and Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan had a conversation for a meeting they had in UAE in the 70s when the Sheikh Abdullah was a child and President Pacolli was telling a story where he had a meeting with his father and the founder of the United Arab Emirates Sheikh Zayed.

I would have experienced such conversations and moments with President Pacolli during his mandate as the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kosovo, a period where we had many meetings and visits aimed at strengthening the position of Kosovo in international arena. The various contacts and wide network created throughout the years by the President Pacolli were of great importance to the foreign politics of Kosovo in the period after the announcement of independence of Kosovo, and not only.

In many countries, his contacts and work made that those particular countries recognise Kosovo as an independent and sovereign country, i.e., from Central America up to Africa and Asia; there are dozens of countries taking such a decision on the ground of his continuous negotiations. During the time he served as a Minister of Foreign Affairs, I have worked closely with President Pacolli on Kosovo recognition-related matters and on relations with different countries, whereby we visited countries from Bangladesh to Barbados, Gambia, Zambia, USA and many other countries aiming at increasing the number of countries recognizing Kosovo's independence, but also to object a wild and corruptive campaign of Serbian diplomacy which intended to withdraw the recognition of Kosovo.

We, as a team of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs chaired by the President Pacolli, established a diplomatic campaign which intended to destroy the aforementioned Serbian diplomatic campaign, and work closely with various countries in order to hinder making decisions harmful to the interests of Kosovo, i.e., decisions fostered by Belgrade. Moreover, many countries, with active diplomacy, were hindered to fall under the prank of Serbian campaign.

In Diplomacy, we attempt to establish personal relations, understand what makes people differ and understand the intentions of people we are dealing with. This is precisely what enables countries to meet their needs. They are foundational elements of a successful diplomacy in advancing the interests of their countries. The main component of success in diplomacy is the so-called “tradecraft”. The ability to establish and maintain good personal relations is of particular importance.

With full certainty, from that experience, I can conclude that if there would be no personal relations of President Pacolli with heads of various countries, the number of countries that could have withdrawn their recognition would be greater, but personal relations, which are always important, were those that enabled us to reach the presidents and prime ministers of various countries in order to prevent the decisions fostered by Belgrade.

Recently, Twitter has served as Recently, Twitter has served as a versatile form of political public square on internal and global affairs. The use of Twitter, driven primarily by the importance of social media in the current environment for conducting diplomatic functions, has become an integral part of contemporary international relations. Indeed, Twitter has created its own form of diplomacy by incorporating itself to add traditional diplomatic functions such as discussion and negotiation. This overview shows how Twitter has played an important role in the field of diplomacy recently. It analyses the role played by "Twiplomacy" and highlights its beneficial and detrimental effects on international relations.

It was the twitter account of President Pacolli and Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including the wider applied communication strategy, that helped shape the narrative against Serbian diplomatic aggression towards Kosovo.

We were able to attack Serbian diplomatic actions through a tailored communication approach aimed at showing the true face of Serbia. In this great contribution and leadership effort has accorded also the experienced diplomat Mr Sami Kastrati, who was responsible for public affairs and public diplomacy in the Ministry. However, it is worth mentioning that we had the full support and commitment of President Pacolli in all suggestions and actions on how to oppose Serbian diplomacy.

Today, since my time in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, I have built a personal friendship with President Pacolli, whom I consider deserves gratitude for many achievements in Kosovo's foreign policy and for leading the Ministry in a time of the country's internal and external upheavals.

NATIONAL SECURITY & DEFENSE

Issued on: June 11, 2019

ALL NEWS

Dear Madam Speaker: (Dear Mr. President:)

I am providing this supplemental consolidated report, prepared by my Administration and to the Kosovo Force (KFOR), led by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in cooperation with local authorities, bilateral partners, and international institutions, to deter renewed hostilities in Kosovo. Approximately 600 United States military personnel are among KFOR's approximately 4,600 personnel.

I have directed the participation of United States Armed Forces in all of the above-described operations pursuant to my constitutional and statutory authority as Commander in Chief and as Chief Executive (including the authority to carry out Public Law 107-40, Public Law 107-243, and other statutes), as well as my constitutional and statutory authority to conduct the foreign relations of the United States. Officials of my Administration and I communicate regularly with congressional leadership and other Members of Congress with regard to these deployments, and we will continue to do so.

Replying to @JJCarafano

The goal to have Kosovo in @NATO is hurting the aggressive policies of Kremlin and Belgrade. This day will come and that will end the cycle of engagement of third actors in the Euro-Atlantic sphere. Kosovo is and will always be an Euro-Atlantic sphere. That's what we believe in.

I support the call of #Kosovo's civil society in opposition to #PACE @coe candidate for #Kosovo Rapporteur to be a former #GRU officer who admires Bashar al-Assad & is in full contradiction of @coe mission. He is not welcomed to #Kosovo & presents a national security threat to us

Agon Maliqi @AgonMaliqi · Nov 13, 2019

#Kosovo civil society organisations have written to the @coe expressing alarm at the possibility that a former Russian GRU officer will become the Rapporteur for #Kosovo.

Joint letter of the civil society organizations from Kosovo to the Parliamentary Assembly and the Secretary General of the Council of Europe

Prishtine Kosovo
November 13, 2019

Alexei Kondratiev, a Russian delegate to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, is being considered to be assigned Rapporteur for Kosovo.

As civil society organizations working to promote human rights, democracy and rule of law, we do not think that Mr. Kondratiev is suitable to become a rapporteur for Kosovo, because of his previous actions that violated these human rights, and extensive prejudice against Kosovo.

Alexei Kondratiev is accused of attempting to kidnap a woman in Kosovo while serving as member of the Russian military contingent in Kosovo between 1999-2000. His occupation and returned to Russia.

As this crucial moment for all the countries of the Western Balkans as they struggle to create stable and inclusive of foreign actors and build democratic institutions that respect human rights, it is most vital that we to ensure a strong and credible commitment from the Council of Europe with our region.

While lobbying strategies of people should be good enough reason to dismiss his candidacy, his potential appointment as Rapporteur for Kosovo on behalf of the Council of Europe will have serious consequences for our joint efforts to advance human rights and democracy in Kosovo.

Council of Europe Rapporteur for Kosovo must lead by example. The rapporteur is someone who is expected to speak out for the protection of human rights, democracy and rule of law, as well as provide credible reports to inform members of the Council of Europe on situation in Kosovo.

Assigning someone to this position who is a direct violator of the information Russian intelligence agency GRU, and who was directly engaged in violating human rights in Kosovo is in contradiction to the founding principles of the Council of Europe and will hinder credible engagement with Kosovo, and the region at large. How can institutions in Kosovo, civil society and other actors, see a credible report coming from a rapporteur who has spoken in numerous occasions against Kosovo in derogatory terms, and who himself violated human rights?

In our view, Alexei Kondratiev is not the right person for this task. His appointment will send clearly harmful a signal of human relations between Kosovo and Council of Europe, which will be detrimental to the much needed access to human rights protection mechanisms for citizens of Kosovo.

I have asked the @EU_Commission to allow unspent funds from the IPA to be diverted to help #WesternBalkans to fight #coronavirus. We urgently need to support our neighbours on the East and South if we want to overcome the #Covid_19 crisis.

Priority question for written answer to the Commission
Rule 138
Ilhan Kyuchyuk

Subject: EU support for the Western Balkans in the fight against coronavirus

European Commission has submitted a proposal of a regulation amending the existing EU legislation (No 2012/2002) on EU Solidarity Fund, so that the resources of the Fund can be used by both Member States and negotiating countries, currently Montenegro, Serbia and Turkey, in the cases of public health emergencies. "As part of this joint coordinated response, the EU Solidarity Fund (EUSF) can play an important role in showing EU solidarity to Member States in dealing with the emergency situation", the proposal reads.

However, this proposal do not include the rest of the Western Balkan countries and put under question the effectiveness of the measures taken by the EU Commission to fight coronavirus.

- Does the European Commission plans to allow unspent funds from the Instrument for Pre-Accession Assistance (IPA) to be diverted to help Western Balkan countries fight coronavirus?

- What other measures the European Commission plans to introduce in order to help Western Balkan countries fight coronavirus?

Welcome the steps taken by the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Kosovo. Urge all political and institutional leaders to await the decisions of the CC and not to use language or actions that threaten the independence, professionalism and credibility of the Court.

Acting Minister of Interior has threatened me with arrest if I go to the Assembly to exercise my duty as MP. This is the biggest challenge ever to #Kosovo's Parliament since 1989. The government is accountable to the Assembly, not MP's to the Gov. Democracy must prevail

In a democracy where constitution clearly separates power, it is totally unacceptable PM to say to the Constitutional Court "we will evaluate you" attacking its independence and professionalism. Our tradition says we respect CC rulings, we like it or not. That's rule of law.

This requires 🇺🇸 & 🇷🇺 to act together in the United States & to counter Serbia's diplomatic activity. It is essential that internal polarization be set aside & focused on building unity on key foreign policy issues. Only together are we able to counter Belgrade anywhere. @ediramaal

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515
February 4, 2022

The Honorable Joseph R. Biden
President of the United States of America
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Biden,

We write to mark the 140th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and Serbia, and to encourage your Administration to deepen ties between our two countries.

Our many countries share a diplomatic history this century. The United States and Serbia went close allies during the First and Second World Wars when American and Serbian fought side-by-side to safeguard freedom in Europe and around the world. In WWI, according to data from the 1919 Paris Peace Conference, Serbia lost 15% of its male population between the ages of 18 and 55 and 25% of the overall population. These tragic sacrifices honored our nation.

To demonstrate American solidarity with its Serbian ally, President Woodrow Wilson flew the Serbian flag above the White House. As he did this, President Wilson said, "While their territory has been desolated and their homes despoiled, the spirit of the Serbian people has not been broken. Though overwhelmed by superior forces, their love of freedom remains unshaken. World Unity has felt unshaken their firm determination to sacrifice everything for the liberty and independence."

When continued war erupted again and contrary, the United States and Serbia continued their fight for freedom. Serbia proved itself to be a critical ally and sincere friend of the United States. During Operation Halved, thousands of Serbians risked their lives to save over 300 U.S. airmen who had been shot down over Berlin. In 2020, Serbia inaugurated a monument shaped like a U.S. military transport plane to commemorate Operation Halved. Speaking at the opening ceremony, David Fisher, Commanding General of Special Operations Command Europe declared, "This is an important day and we must remember the ordinary Serbs, who did the impossible in 1944."

During the Cold War, while Serbia was incorporated into communist Yugoslavia, Belgrade fought bravely to maintain its independence from the Soviet Union and, in many ways, its closeness with the United States. Despite being a communist country and outside of NATO and the European Community, it cooperated with the United States in critical ways to prevent Soviet domination of Europe and advance our mutual interests.

Today, Serbia is an indispensable partner for the United States both regionally and globally. Belgrade recently demonstrated this partnership by giving refuge to over 80 Afghan refugees.

To sustain this economic success, Serbia, together with its Balkan neighbors, Albania and North Macedonia, is engaged in a regional economic integration process called the Open Balkans. This is an indigenous initiative by the three countries to expand commercial partnerships, foster greater people-to-people ties, and prepare themselves for the responsibilities of full membership in the European Union, which they all seek and deserve to join. It is important to notice that these dynamics and principles prove the joint aspirations of Serbia and the United States for anchoring the Balkans in the framework of Europe-wide, free and at peace.

Serbia and the United States share a long history as allies and partners. The 140th anniversary of official diplomatic relations between our countries is a milestone that allows us to reflect on the past, but more importantly, it should cause us to envision a future in which Serbia and the United States have found ways to deepen our ties. As the renowned Serbian-American aviator Nikola Tesla, who lends our aviation through his contributions to humanity, said, "Let the future tell the truth, and evaluate each one according to his work and accomplishments."

We urge your Administration to work with our friends in Belgrade to make this vision a reality.

The @eu_eas should condemn & take actions against #Serbia for the clear & open policy of revisionism & glorification of war criminals. Saša Cvjetan - jailed for war crimes against #Albanians - was "an honoured guest" at a public ceremony in Srebrenica with Aleksander Vulin.

Foundation Humanitarian Law Center

Press release: Minister Vulin continuously in the company of war crimes convicts

According to some media reports, Saša Cvjetan, a member of the "Scorpions" unit who was sentenced to 20 years in prison in 2005 for war crimes against Albanian civilians during the Kosovo war, was an honored guest at the commemoration of Srebrenica Municipality Day on March 11 this year. At the ceremony, seated in the same row as Cvjetan, was Serbian Interior Minister Aleksandar Vulin, who also gave a speech on that occasion.

The Humanitarian Law Center (HLC) believes that it is inadmissible that state officials of Serbia be found in the company of war criminals, thereby knowingly affording them the legitimacy to participate in political life. It is in this way that the rehabilitation of those convicted of the most serious crimes during the wars of the 1990s and historical revisionism of court-established facts are carried out.

The Humanitarian Law Center recalls that on March 28, 1999, members of the Serbian Ministry of Interior's "Scorpions" reserve unit, including Saša Cvjetan, shot and killed 14 Albanian civilians in Podujevo – seven children, aged between two and 15 years, and seven women, namely: Shpetim Bogujević (10), Shpend Bogujević (13), Sala Bogujević (39), Nona Bogujević (15), Shefekte Bogujević (43), Shehida Bogujević (67), Nefise Bogujević Llugaliu (54), Fezrie Llugaliu (21), Dafina Duriqi (9), Arber Duriqi (7), Mimoze Duriqi (4), Albin Duriqi (2), Fitnete Duriqi (36) and Esma Duriqi (69). Five other children survived: Saranda, Fatos, Jehona, Lirije and Genc Bogujević.

In 2005, Saša Cvjetan was finally sentenced for this crime before the District Court in Belgrade, and in 2010, other perpetrators – Dragan Borojević, Miodrag Šolaja and Dragan Medić; and then in 2011, after the repetition of the procedure, Željko Djukić was convicted.

Cvjetan was released on March 22, 2018, more than three and a half years before the expiration of his sentence, after his request for parole was accepted. When making the decision on the parole, the court did not take into account the circumstances it had to consider, given the gravity of the crime: namely, the absence of sincere remorse and of sympathy for the victims in the convicted person, as well as the fact that the convicted person denied his guilt.

In addition, at the pre-election rally of the Socialist Movement, Minister Vulin's party, held on March 27 this year, one of the speakers was retired General Vladimir Lazarević, convicted before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) of helping and abetting crimes against humanity against Kosovo Albanians in 1999. Lazarević was sentenced to 14 years in prison, and his early release was granted in 2015, when he was welcomed at the airport in Niš by a state delegation headed by the then Defence Minister Bratislav Gašić and Minister of Justice Nikola Selaković.

The Humanitarian Law Center urges state institutions and public office holders to stop rehabilitating war criminals, to clearly condemn war crimes committed during the wars of the Welcome @Europarl_EN has taken note of the complaints of ethnic Albanians from the #Presevo valley who were denied the right to vote & apparently deleted from the civil registry at their place of residence, thus being deprived of their fundamental & political rights by #Serbia.

I'm shocked to learn that former #Japanese PM Abe Shinzo was shot this morning.

Mr Abe is a good friend of #Kosovo. Mr Abe had hosted several Summits with #Kosovo leaders in Tokyo in the past & supported our country.

My thoughts & prayers are with Mr Abe & his family.

The international community must do more to bring to justice the perpetrators of the Bytyqi Brother's killing and dozens & dozens other war crimes committed in Kosovo and #Serbia walks free from its responsibility.

Without justice, reconciliation is hampered.

U.S. Embassy Pristina  @USEmbPristina · Jul 8

It's been 23 years since the execution of Americans Ylli, Agron, & Mehmet Bytyqi, and yet there has been no full investigation. The U.S. calls on Serbian authorities to bring to justice those who committed and covered up these murders. We cannot and will not forget this crime. twitter.com/USEmbassySerbi...

Shocked and saddened by the cowardly assassination of Japan's former Prime Minister Abe.

He was a towering figure in world politics and a beloved leader of Japanese people.

#Kosovo lost a great friend and supporter.

My thoughts are with his family & Japanese people.
